

Learning at Home – Top Tips!

Completing homework and daily reviewing is an important part of learning and doing well. We expect you to get homework regularly and for it to take about 20 to 30 minutes per subject. You will get lots of different types of activities to complete.

It is really important to get into a good routine for completing homework.

So here are six top tips to help you make solid study habits...

1

Try to do homework and reviewing on the day it is set, or plan when you're going to complete it so you can meet the due date.

2

Complete the activities at a table or desk in as quiet a place as possible, free from devices, music and other distractions.

3

Proof read any written work. Ask someone at home to help you check your work and show them you have completed.

4

Complete tasks earlier rather than later and make sure it is finished well before bedtime!

5

Find time regularly go through each subject and review what you have learnt. We'll give you a number of ways to do this but one good way is to sit down with someone at home and tell them all about your learning.

6

At the end of each week, ask an adult at home to sign your planner
