This Notice is provided to you by your Examination centre, which is the person or organisation (e.g. your school) who enters you for your examinations. The Notice tells you how your personal information is used for processing online applications for access arrangements.

Access arrangements take account of one of the following impairments when you take an examination; your learning difficulty, medical condition, physical disability or sensory impairment.

Your controller

The Examination centre is a controller of your personal information. The awarding bodies, including the JCQ, will also be controllers when they receive or use your personal information.

A controller is someone who uses your personal information for their own purposes. The contact details for the Examination centre are overleaf. Contact details for the awarding bodies can be found at: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/contact-us/contact-details-for-jcq-and-members>

Personal information

To apply online for access arrangements the Examination centre must use your name, Date of Birth, candidate number, Year Group and the academic year(s) when you will take the examinations. They must also confirm what your difficulties are. If the online application for access arrangements is rejected, your Examination centre will need to provide details about your difficulties, and the nature of your impairment, to the awarding bodies for consideration.

How your personal information is used

If you sign the form overleaf to give consent, the Examination centre will apply online for your access arrangement(s). The online system is operated by the JCQ on behalf of AQA, CCEA, OCR, Pearson and WJEC. The online system is programmed to make a decision about your application. If the application is rejected and your Examination centre refers the decision, it will have to provide details about the nature of your impairment and your particular difficulties to the relevant awarding body/bodies. Your information may be used for other purposes, without your consent, in some circumstances, such as to comply with law or to combat crime. The awarding bodies use your personal information in the UK, where laws protect the information. Your personal information will only leave the EU if you or your Examination centre are outside the EU, where such laws may not apply. You can find more details, including the legal basis for the use of your personal information by your Examination centre and the awarding bodies at: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/information-for-candidates-documents/information-for-candidates--privacy-notice>

Your choices

You do not have to give your consent by signing overleaf. If you withhold consent, the Examination centre might not be able to process an online application for you.

Your rights

If you sign the form overleaf to give consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. You also have rights to find out how the online system made the decision about your application, and to get the decision reviewed by an Awarding Body Officer. To exercise rights, if you live in the UK or EU, just tell the Examinations officer or SENCo using the contact details overleaf, and (wherever you live, if the application has already been made) tell the awarding bodies using the contact details referred to above. You can find more detail about these and your other rights at: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/information-for-candidates-documents/information-for-candidates---privacy-notice>
