

QES Special Places Factfile

Amphitheatre

Location	Between the Art Block and Springfield House Garden
Interesting Fact	Miss Edwards' father was involved in the construction of it

Anne's Garden

Location	The centre of the Main School Building
Description	Named after Anne Moyes, who taught Biology at the school for many years and was a housemistress when QES was a boarding school.

Nature Reserve

Location	Between the Astroturf and St Mary's Primary School
Interesting Fact	Created by the Land Management Students at the Studio School

QES Special Places Factfile

The Paul Percy Memorial

Location	Just outside New Close
Description	Named after Paul Percy, who worked at QES for over twenty years. He was a Year 7 Tutor, Chemistry Teacher and a DofE Instructor. He tragically died whilst out walking the fells after a fall.

Roeburn Gallery

Location	Next to the Main Hall / Café Q
Description	One of the newest additions to school. Named after one of the tributaries to the River Lune. Used to showcase student artwork and for Academic Reviews at the end of the year.

Springfield House Garden

Location	Next to Springfield House
Description	Used for special Sixth Form occasions

QES Special Places Factfile

The QES Throne

Location	Next to Biggins Lane
Interesting Fact	Carved out of a tree that was over 100 years old - it had developed a disease making it no longer safe. The designs carved into it were created by Year 7s.

World War I Memorial Benches

Location	Springfield House Garden
Description	The benches have plaques bearing the names of QES students who fought and died in World War I

World War II Memorial Benches

Location	Around the edge of the school field
Description	The benches have plaques bearing the names of QES students who fought and died in World War II