

Criminology

Curriculum Intent Statement

“Crime and bad lives are the measure of a State’s failure, all crime in the end is the crime of the community.” H.G. Wells

At Lunesdale Learning Trust in Criminology we will enable pupils to:

- Experience criminology outside of the classroom
- Explore a range of roles within the criminal justice system
- Apply their knowledge and understanding to a range of criminological contexts. Analysing and interpreting data and situations
- Research, extend their writing and work to time constraints
- Develop a broad knowledge of crime, including types of crime, the CJS, theories of offending behavior and punishment
- Become inquisitive learners, questioning the validity and reliability of information, evaluating the impact and reaching conclusions based on their knowledge and understanding.

KS5 : we offer Level 3 Applied Diploma in Criminology
