Curriculum Intent Statement

“With languages, you are at home anywhere”

Edmund De Waal

At Lunesdale Learning Trust in French we will enable pupils to:

- have an interest in, and respect for, other cultures
- gain an awareness of the importance and usefulness of learning other languages
- understand how to best learn a foreign language, and how to consolidate learning
- feel confident making links between common sounds and spelling
- gain a good understanding of core French grammar
- understand a range of vocabulary, as appropriate to their language level
- build confidence in their spoken and written language skills
- have the confidence to tackle a range of written and spoken texts, as appropriate to their language level
- have an interest in the culture and history of France, as well as other Francophone countries.
